5. Explanation as required under No. 5 of Amendment to Registration Statement:

Under Item 11, Activities and Services rendered, for the Japanese Government through the Consulate General of Japan at San Francisco, "3)Advice to the Consulate General," we reported that we had recommended the names of three American journalists to receive invitations to visit Japan as guests of the Japanese Government.

Late in 1976 the Consul General of Japan asked us to recommend three journalists from different cities within his jurisdiction. Those cities were Denver, Sacramento and Salt Lake City.

Acting upon his request we recommended the following:

a) Robert K. Tweedell, editor of "Perspective" section, THE DENVER POST.

b) George Williams, assistant city editor, THE SACRAMENTO BEE.

c) A writer working for the SALT LAKE CITY DESERET NEWS who was to be assigned by that paper's managing editor, J.M. Hesslot. At the time we submitted the report, Mr. Hesslot's choice had not yet been made known to us.

Mssrs. Tweedell and Williams accepted the invitation from the Japanese Government and traveled to Japan April 7-21, 1977.
